Contract For Proposed New School Building Not Awarded Yet

Great bodies such as the Wainwright School Board move slowly. The point of the adaptation of the ancient saw is that the contract for the proposed new school building has not yet been awarded.

A meeting of the board held on Tuesday afternoon, the matter was discussed at length but as Mr. Brocklebank, the lowest tenderer, had not been heard from as expected, it was decided to defer action for a few days. In the meantime, the chairman was to get into communication with Mr. Brocklebank by wire and endeavor to ascertain what his intentions were in respect to the contract. When he left here last week Mr. Brocklebank said that he would send up another marked cheque, but up to the time of the meeting on Tuesday, this had not been received, nor had any other communication been received from him.

Chairman Pawling remarked that Mr. Brocklebank appeared to be very lukewarm about the job, but he thought it advisable to give him every chance to "come through."

Trustees Washburn and Ross agreed with him, but it was decided not to wait any longer than Thursday. If no reply is received by that time, Mr. Brocklebank will not be considered any further and one of the other tenders will be accepted. Several matters of minor importance were also dealt with. A. Thompson wrote asking that the board have their wood removed from the front of his house. This matter was left to the chairman to look after.

The inspector's report was presented to the meeting. The feature of the report was the emphasis which the inspector laid upon the lack of equipment. Owing to the deficiency in this respect the school could not draw the inspector's grant. The teaching and school management were reported good, and the attendance fairly satisfactory. The inspector, in conclusion, suggested that the attention of the teachers be drawn to the section of the School Act which states that whenever equipment is required, the teacher should make a requisition to the board for it. This had not been done here.

Secretary Fieldhouse reported that a large number of applications for the position of Principal of the school had been received. These were not dealt with, however.

A number of accounts for advertising were passed. A letter was received from the Department of Education stating that the "Public School Leaving" and Part VI examinations would be held at various centres in the province on the 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th of June inst., and asking if in case Wainwright was selected as one of these centres, the local school board would provide the necessary rooms.

It was decided that the department should be notified that the Wainwright board would be only too happy to provide rooms for the proposed examinations.

W. P. Hill, late of the Fredrickton, (N. B.) Daily Mail mechanical staff, has arrived in Wainwright and assumed control of the mechanical department of the Star. Mr. Hill is a printer of wide experience and has been employed in some of the largest and most up-to-date offices of the east. Patrons of the Star printer can be assured of first-class work in the future.

Fire Brigade's Neat Work

Fire At S. McMillan's Barn
Handled in Good Shape—Origin of Fire Unknown.

The Wainwright fire brigade by their handling of the fire in S. McMillan's barn last Tuesday have another neat job to their credit.

The boys were at the scene of the blaze a couple of minutes after the bell rang and although the fire was difficult to get at on account of a quantity of hay being in the barn, it was soon under control. The building was pretty well gutted inside, the loss being in the vicinity of $150.

There was a small quantity of hay destroyed and a few hens perished in the flames.

A pig that was in the barn escaped through a door but the bristles were pretty well scorched off its back.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

Wainwright's New Buildings

Several Fine Houses Nearing Completion—International Harvester Co. to Build Warehouse Soon.

Wainwright is experiencing quite a building boom just now, and in addition to the buildings which have been started or are nearing completion, others have been contracted for and will be started shortly.

Among those nearing completion are Dr. McQueen's house on Fourth Avenue, which is being built by Gooderich Bros., and H. V. Fieldhouse's new cottage on Third Avenue. This will be one of the most up-to-date houses in town. It has a full basement, and will be heated by steam. It will be ready for occupancy in about two weeks. E. C. Buckley is the contractor.

The Massey-Harris warehouse near the depot is rapidly nearing completion having been rushed along at great speed by the contractors, P. Laird & Son. The building is 34 x 60.

The International Harvester Co. also intend building a large warehouse in this vicinity and work upon it will be started this fall.

The excavation for the foundation of the two-story house which A. E. Mills is to have built on Third Ave. is nearly completed, and work on the house will be started very soon.

E. D. Stimpson is having a neat cottage erected for himself. It is located on Sixth Avenue. He also intends to build five cottages for renting.

Out in the country there is also considerable building going on. Zelander Bros. who recently came up from Quebec, and bought a section of land about four miles north of the city have each started to build a large house and barn.

W. H. Oliver, the G. T. P. station agent here, has purchased the new house which P. Laird is building on Fifth Avenue, and when it is finished, will move his family here and occupy it.

Wisconsin Farmers Greatly Pleased With The Wainwright District

The Star had a call from N. Herman, Jr., a Wisconsin farmer and real estate man, who was one of a party of land-seekers from Wisconsin, who were in town on Wednesday. These men came to the West in the private car of the International Realty Company, of Strathcona, and practically all of them bought land in Alberta and will come here shortly to live.

A number of them intend locating in the Holden district, while others will come to the Wainwright district. Between one and two thousand acres of land about seven miles north-east of the town were sold on Wednesday morning to the Wisconsin visitors. It was expected by Mr. Herman that others would buy on the trip home.

"The party were greatly taken with this part of the country," said Mr. Herman, "and I am certain that there will be a big movement here from my state."

Mr. Herman told the Star that two more carloads of Wisconsin land-seekers would arrive here within a few weeks.

STAR SHOTS

The village council did not meet this week.

So Duncan Marshall "Olds" his seat without a fight, eh?

Premier Sifton's decision to run in Vermilion looks as though he intended to paint things red.

Prince Albert wants the proposed new provincial insane asylum. It should be able to make out a strong case all right.

Hon. C. R. Mitchell will be opposed in Medicine Hat by his brother-in-law. Well it will all be in the family, anyway, no matter who wins.

"Is oratory on the decline in Canada?" asks an exchange. Well, after attending a few sessions of the Wainwright council the shot editor can unhesitatingly say that it is not.

Dick Smith, C.E., formerly of Portage la Prairie was in town this week, a guest at the Wainwright Hotel.

Bert Cox, painter and decorator, has joined the ever increasing number of Star advertisers. His judgment is sound.

If you are all through having babies, perhaps you would like to sell your baby carriage. There are lots of people who are not.

The Star gives its advertisers good value. If you are a man who has something to sell, either goods or technical skill, tell the public about it through the Star.

Mrs. H. V. Fieldhouse of Wainwright visited here yesterday, the guest of Mrs. Thomas Sissons. She left this morning for Neepawa where she will attend the wedding of her sister-in-law Miss E. Fieldhouse to A. McDougall, formerly of Portage, Portage la Prairie Review.

Rev. T. W. Bateman arrived home on Thursday evening last from Red Deer where he attended the meeting of the Methodist Conference of Alberta.

His appointment to the China mission was confirmed by the conference. Mr. Bateman occupied the pulpit of Grace church on Sunday morning and evening.

No less than three gasoline plowing outfits have been sold here within the past few days. Fred Akroyd bought a 45 h.p. outfit from the Wainwright Flour and Feed Co. and G. C. Buckley and Oliver Reid each purchased 22 h.p. outfits from Harpell & Pawling. Mr. Akroyd bought a Hart-Parr, and the others International engines.

C. T. Lally, the original of the above photograph, is head of the firm of Betts & Co, and one of Wainwright's pioneer business men, having been preceded here by the "Denwood bunch" only.

When Mr. Lally first came West, he was in the service of the Imperial Bank, but the call of commerce proved too strong and he abandoned the realms of finance for a more stirring business career. He is one of the most alert and progressive of Wainwright's merchants and has built up a large business. Mr. Lally is not so absorbed in his own affairs, however, that he neglects his duty to the town as a whole and is one of the most active members of the Board of Trade, of which he is vice-president. He is also an enthusiastic Mason.

Rev. T. Philips Comes July Third

Rev. Thomas Philips, S. L. T., who will succeed Rev. T. W. Bateman as pastor of Grace church, will preach his first sermon as pastor here, on Sunday, the third of July.

Mr. Philips is said to be an excellent speaker. He has been stationed at Innisfail for the past two years, and previous to that he spent three years at Camrose. He has a wife and one child. Mrs. Philips is an accomplished musician and will be a decided acquisition to the musical circles of Wainwright. She possesses a fine contralto voice, which has been well trained. Mrs. Philips is a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Rev. T. W. Bateman will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday the 26th of June. His last service at Greenshields will be held next Sunday, the 19th inst.

St. Thomas Church Woman's Auxiliary

A meeting for the organization of a Woman's Auxiliary in connection with St. Thomas' church was held on Thursday afternoon last at the home of Miss Masson.

The officers elected were as follows:

President, Mrs. Dr. Watson, Vice-President, Miss Masson, Treasurer, Miss Mott, Secretary, Miss Baldwin. Plans were discussed for the carrying out of the work of the Auxiliary. After the business was finished dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

At the meeting of Wainwright Lodge, I. O. O. F., held on Monday evening, W. E. Mills was elected Noble Grand and P. E. Ross Vice Grand. Beginning with Monday, the 27th of June, the Oddfellows will meet every two weeks instead of every week.

W. Vallie won Gold Medal.

A Laird Captured Silver Medal—Ladies' Gun Club to be Organized.

Not wishing to monopolize the jewelry, W. Musson, at the Gun Club's shoot, last Friday evening, allowed W. Vallie to carry off the gold medal for the supremacy in "A" class. The veteran marksman believes in encouraging these promising young shots. Mr. Vallie's score was 15 and Mr. Musson's 13.

The silver medal for the high score in "B" class was won by A. Laird, with the fine score of 18.

The competitors and their scores were as follows: H. G. Morrison, 9; M. L. Forster, 11; Dr. Watson, 14; A. E. Mills, 6; W. E. Washburn, 12; Dr. Betts, 14; A. Laird, 18; E. D. Stimpson, 12; P. E. Ross, 9; S. Smith, 15; G. H. Beaudry, 9; W. Musson, 13; A. Vallie, 15; W. E. Mills, 6; P. Dewar, 11.

Among the spectators were quite a number of ladies, who appeared to follow the shooting with keen interest. In fact, so keen has their interest become, that a Ladies' Gun Club is to be formed in the near future.

Wainwright Wins Two

Local Ball Team Turned Tables on Hardisty, 8 to 4 and Defeated Irma, 11 to 5

The Wainwright baseball team turned the tables on the Hardisty team last Monday, defeating them on their own grounds by the score of 8 to 4, and thereby wiping out the sting of the defeat administered to them by the Hardisty players at Irma on May 24th.

The teams lined up as follows:

Hardisty	Wainwright
Joglum ss	Haley
Hoffmeyer c	Trenouth
Hinklay 2b	Reynolds
Longman 3b	Crittenden
Burgess 1b	Lewis
E. Joglum p	Betts
Smith cf	Greaves
Murray of	Readman
M. Joglum if	Smith

The Wainwright boys droyed over on Sunday, arriving at Hardisty about two o'clock on Monday morning and played that afternoon. They arrived home about two o'clock Tuesday morning and naturally were not feeling in extra good trim for the game with Irma on Tuesday night. They were good enough, however, to beat Irma to the tune of 11 to 5. The game was watched by two or three hundred people.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Irma	Wainwright
Hartson p	Betts
Ross 2b	Reynolds
McMurray 1b	Lewis
Young of	Readman
Clark ss	Smith
J. Erickson 3b	Crittenden
Peterson if	Trenouth
E. Erickson c	Haley
Saunders rf	Greaves

The Wainwright Star's subscription list is growing very rapidly. Still there are people whose homes are not cheered by it each week. Now is the accepted time.

Thirty-eight more buffalo, from the famous Pablo herd, reached here on Saturday evening last, and were taken out to "Buffalo Park." It was expected that this shipment would be the last of the herd, but all of them could not be rounded up. There are still about seventy to come.

One calf was born on the trip here and another just after the animals had been safely landed inside the enclosure.

Park Commissioner Douglas was in charge of the train until Edmonton was reached, but he went on to Banff, leaving Mr. Ayotte to see the buffalo to Wainwright. Mr. Douglas took eight head with him to Banff.

Mr. Douglas is highly pleased at the successful completion of a task on which he entered about three years ago. It was in 1907 that Mr. Douglas purchased for the Dominion Government the whole of the herd of buffalo owned by Mr. Pablo, of Kalispell, Montana, with the object of preventing the extinction of the one-time lords of the prairie. For three years he worked in the face of obstacles that would have discouraged any less enthusiastic man. He has now the satisfaction of knowing that, thanks to his untiring efforts, the Dominion of Canada is in possession of the largest collection of wild animals in the world.

Many inducements were held out to induce Pablo to violate his contract, but the old Mexican halfbreed put them all aside and faithfully carried out his contract with Mr. Douglas to deliver the last of the buffalo.

The buffalo will be nurtured and cared for as wards of the Canadian government, whose officials will see to it that they are left unmolested to increase and multiply. While they will not be allowed their full freedom they will have free range within the confines of the large park which will be their future home, and will, no doubt, become accustomed to a partially civilized life. They will be objects of interest to thousands of visitors and be the star attraction of the park.

WEDDINGS

GRAHAM—CLARK

A quiet but fashionable wedding took place at Irma on Wednesday morning, June 8th, when Miss Laura Clark, eldest daughter of J. G. Clark, of Irma, was united in marriage to A. G. Graham, of the Graham & Buscombe Undertaking Co., of Calgary.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's father by Rev. J. A. Clark, of Knox Church, Calgary. Only intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. The presents were both numerous and costly, testifying to the esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends.

The happy couple left on Monday for an extended tour of the British Isles and will be away about six months. On their return they will take up their residence at Calgary.

The Imperial Lumber Co. has opened a branch yard at Jarow, with Mr. Lindholm as local manager. T. G. Cook was in Jarow last week making the necessary arrangements.

Rev. J. A. James, who has accepted a call to become pastor of Knox Church, Daysland, will leave Friday or Monday for his new field of labor. Mrs. James will accompany him.

can Government had shown in '60 that it would stand no nonsense from military men, and that it would not be the sort of war and all its horrors, I think.

For the second time I looked upon the sea, and I was reminded of the day of Canada, but on this occasion I felt little pity for them. I knew they were not the same men as the ones I had thought they deserved all they were likely to get. The old school of British soldiers, the men of the old school of warfare, with the Canadian Volunteers, repelled the second French raid.

For the third time I looked across to British territory on the morning of May 25th, and you might have fancied, from the way the men were dressed in the gaudy fashion in which they advanced, that they were going to wipe us out and then to march back to their own country and reform a sort of advance guard, and before they started, one of their officers, a man of the old school, and like trutliedors and to stand their ground. They had words to obey him, and they were not the same men as I had, had uttered the ringing charges

Sherrone, Alberta. It is a brief career, for Mr. Sheppard has been in the oil business for only twenty years. His years have been well spent and they have brought an abundant reward—in the form of a comfortable income and the greatest natural blessing a man can enjoy. This is what the land of the Canadas has done for him. It has subjected to conditions which are similar to those essential to success in any walk of life. It has required of him the same things that must be industry, prudence, pluck, and yet there is a most important difference. It has rewarded these qualities by the land of the Canadas. It has given him a home in a crowded country of the Old World, and even in the cities of the older provinces he has found a place where that abundance can obtain, and, in fact, is that many dare hope for. In the Canadas, the land of the future, the north wealth beyond the reach of any.

The success that in the thirty years has been achieved by Mr. Sheppard is undoubtedly the result of his being determined to be wealthy in another country. He has been wholly won on the land. He has been able to acquire a comfortable small means and a smaller stock of goods, with a wife and an only child, and he has been able to live in the interior

"What machinery," adds World Work, "have the railroads of this country got with them to handle this business?"

When the Grand Trunk Pacific opens up, it will undoubtedly follow the same policy, and the same machinery, in the regions settled under these principles, the nucleus of the most efficient, agricultural nation in the history of the world."

THE ORDER OF THE BATH

THE London County Council is making arrangements for enforcing some rather extraordinary powers which it has just passed three years ago, in a General Powers Bill.

The medical officers, or any person authorized by the council, may enter the lodging houses to "examine the persons and clothing of inmates," and, when they find that the inmates are suffering in a foul condition, may give such immediate notice to submit himself, and, if necessary, to be examined during the day.

A systematic search for dirty people is not to be begun.

WORK TOGETHER

Wainwright is getting a lot of publicity these days. Let us hope that the people of the town will work together harmoniously and so reap the full benefits from this extensive advertising. This is no time for the display of mistrust and suspicion. Harmony is needed and a concentration by the whole people, upon the development and upbuilding of the town and district. Let these ancient feuds, which originated so long ago that the original cause is a matter of tradition, be obliterated. Let this talk of the "Smith party" or the "Jones party" cease and let there be only a "Wainwright party", to which every citizen can belong and which will send the town forward by leaps and bounds. Unity is strength. A house divided against itself cannot stand. If one section of the people is pulling in one direction and one in another, progress is impossible. The prospects of many a promising place have been ruined because of disunion and discord, and frequently the trouble has been due to trifling disputes, which have been magnified and enlarged until a fiction has grown up around them. Because a couple of Wainwright's citizens some years ago had a spat, must the town stand still? What could be more absurd? There are bound to be differences on public questions as they arise from time to time, but what we protest against and what every citizen who has the interests of the town at heart should work against and frown upon, is anything approaching factional feeling. In this connection the Star once more takes the opportunity of stating that it knows no faction or party, but will at all times stand for what it considers the best interests of the town as a whole. The policy of the paper will be fixed without thought of how it will suit Jones, or whether Smith will like it or not. A spineless newspaper is more likely to be a harmful agent than a useful one. The Star's attitude is, we think, pretty well understood by the people generally, but it has been misrepresented by a few troakers who have a permanent grudge against the world and find their happiness in making others unhappy.
